SMS Terms and Conditions

Friendship Shelter, also known as Friendship Shelter, Inc., will use SMS to communicate with you about your services if you consent to receive text messages during your enrollment. Messages may include arranging appointments, service coordination and providing resources. Message frequency varies. Message and data rates may apply. Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

To stop receiving text messages, you may revoke consent by providing a written request to any Friendship Shelter staff member. You may also reply STOP to any message to cancel. You may also reply HELP to any message for assistance.
